THIRD INTERIM FEE
APPLICATION OF SHARTSIS
FRIESE LLP, CONFLICTS
COUNSEL TO THE RECEIVER

Date: April 23, 2012
Time: 8:30 a.m.
Judge: Hon. David O. Carter
Court Room: 9D

22 Shartsis Friese LLP (“Shartsis Friese”), conflicts counsel for Thomas A.
23 Seaman (the “Receiver”), the court-appointed Permanent Receiver for Medical 24 Capital Holdings, Medical Capital Corporation, Medical Provider Funding
25 Corporation VI, and their subsidiaries and affiliates (collectively, the “Receivership 26 Entities”) submits this Third Interim Fee Application for approval and payment of

1 fees and reimbursement of expenses. This application covers the eight-month
2 period from May 1, 2011 through December 31, 2011 (the “Third Interim Period”).

3 By this Application, Shartsis Friese seeks compensation for $340,313.10 in 4 fees and $13,665.42 in costs incurred during the Third Interim Period. Shartsis
5 Friese requests that the Receiver be authorized to pay out of the assets of the 6 receivership estate 80% of the requested fees ($272,250.48), and 100% of the 7 requested costs ($13,665.42).

8 The Court has previously approved fees to Shartsis Friese in the amount of 9 $520,607.75 and costs in the amount of $18,648.33, and authorized the Receiver to 10 pay 80% of the fees and 100% of the costs. See Doc. Nos. 549, 595. With the 11 instant Application, the total amount of fees for which Shartsis Friese has sought 12 approval is $860,920.85, and the total amount of costs is $32,313.75. Those 13 amounts cover services provided by Shartsis Friese on all matters (including claims 14 against the Trustees and discovery in other litigation) for the 22-month period from 15 March 2010 through December 2011.

16 The SEC has reviewed this Third Interim Fee Application and did not have 17 any comments regarding the Fee Application. The SEC does not intend to oppose 18 the Fee Application. The Receiver also supports approval of Shartsis Friese’s 19 application.

20 As detailed below, the Receiver and Shartsis Friese respectfully request that 21 the Court allow Shartsis Friese to be compensated for its fees and costs incurred in 22 the Third Interim Period.

23 I. INTRODUCTION

24 On August 18, 2009, the Court entered the Preliminary Injunction and Order
25 Appointing a Permanent Receiver and authorizing him to engage and employ 26 attorneys to (1) assist in investigation and discovery as may be necessary to locate
27 and account for assets of or managed by the Receivership Entities, and (2) 28 investigate and, where appropriate, to institute, pursue, and prosecute all claims and

1 causes of action of whatever kind and nature as a result of the activities of the 2 employees or agents of the Receivership Entities. The Receiver immediately
3 engaged Allen Matkins.

4 In February 2010, the Receiver engaged Shartsis Friese as conflicts counsel
5 to investigate potential claims against the indenture trustees for the Receivership
6 Entities, Wells Fargo Bank (“Wells Fargo”) and Bank of New York-Mellon 7 (“BONY”) (collectively, Wells Fargo and BONY are referred to as the “Trustees”).
8 The Receiver engaged conflicts counsel because Allen Matkins represents Wells
9 Fargo in unrelated matters. Shartsis Friese’s engagement also included
10 investigating potential claims against BONY because the legal and factual issues
11 surrounding those potential claims were similar. Shartsis Friese’s engagement
12 subsequently expanded to include representing the Receiver in discovery
13 proceedings initiated in the Masonek litigation, to which Wells Fargo and BONY 14 are parties. On May 21, 2010, this Court confirmed the Receiver’s appointment of 15 Shartsis Friese as conflicts counsel [Doc. No. 260] and on October 12, 2010, the 16 Court authorized the Receiver, through conflicts counsel, to bring such claims 17 against the Trustees as the Receiver deems proper [Doc. No. 428].

18 Being mindful of the Receiver’s mission to maximize the value of the 19 receivership estate, net of all costs including attorneys fees, the Receiver and 20 Shartsis Friese have worked closely to reduce the amount of attorneys fees. The 21 Receiver has implemented a number of strategies to achieve this goal, including: 1) 22 effective use of junior attorneys and paralegals where appropriate; 2) the use of the 23 Receiver’s expertise and work product, as well as his staff, for gathering and 24 analyzing evidence; 3) the negotiation of a discounted fee arrangement wherein 25 associate attorneys and paralegals are billed at a ten percent discount and partners at 26 an approximate fifteen percent discount, and travel time to Southern California is 27 not charged; 4) the negotiation and execution of tolling agreements with the 28 Trustees to facilitate the cost effective exchange of documents and to engage in

1 discussions with counsel for the Trustees concerning the Receiver's investigation
2 and his potential claims against the Trustees; and 5) direct discussions involving the 3 Receiver, his counsel, and counsel for and representatives of the Trustees, aimed at 4 settling claims without the expense of full litigation proceedings.

5 II. FEE APPLICATION AND SUMMARY OF TASKS PERFORMED BY 6 SHARTSIS FRIESE DURING THE THIRD INTERIM PERIOD

7 For work performed during the eight-month Third Interim Period, Shartsis 8 Friese respectfully requests the Court's approval of $340,313.10 in fees and 9 $13,665.42 in costs. Nearly all of those fees and costs were for work related to the 10 Receiver's potential claims against the Trustees. Some additional fees were 11 incurred in preparing objections to claims submitted by the Trustees.

12 During the time period covered by this Application, Shartsis Friese's efforts 13 were focused on continuing the settlement discussions that had been initiated with 14 the Trustees, with the goal of obtaining a recovery for the Receivership Estate 15 without incurring the costs, risks, and delay of formal litigation. The Receiver and 16 the Trustees have had numerous meetings, substantive telephone discussions, and 17 exchanges of written information and documentation. Shartsis Friese also prepared 18 objections to the claims filed against the Receivership Estate by the Trustees.

19 Shartsis Friese's invoices reflect a total of 1084.80 hours of work performed 20 during the Third Interim Period. That work has included a detailed review and 21 analysis of extensive documentation (including documentation provided by the 22 Trustees to facilitate further discussions), review of documents and information in 23 the Receiver's possession in order to respond to contentions by the Trustees, legal 24 research regarding defenses raised by the Trustees, review of the relevant portions 25 of the Receiver's Reports to the Court and the pleadings and motions in the 26 Masonek litigation; and review concerning transactions by the Medical Capital
27 entities that give rise to the Receiver's potential claims. Shartsis Friese has worked 28 closely with the Receiver's staff in order to maximize efficiency in performing

1 these tasks. Shartsis Friese has also sought and obtained voluntary production of 2 documents from the Trustees so as to avoid the costs of litigation over discovery 3 issues.

4 Shartsis Friese has also applied a 10% discount to all non-partner time,
5 representing a discount of $20,670.90, and has billed partners (Ronald Hayes 6 Malone and Frank Cialone) at a blended rate of $550 that results in a further 7 substantial discounting.

8 In March 2012, Shartsis Friese will adjust its billing rates. Shartsis Friese
9 requests authority to apply current non-partner billing rates for all fees incurred 10 from March 2012 forward (subject to the 10% discount for non-partner time that is 11 already in place). This would result in hourly rate increases for associates Simone 12 Katz-O'Neill (from $320 to $350, prior to the application of the 10% discount), 13 Joseph Mauch (from $310 to $340, prior to the application of the 10% discount),
14 and Roni Pomerantz (from $290 to $320, prior to the discount), and paralegal
15 Shepherd Smith (from $180 to $195, prior to the discount). Shartsis Friese believes 16 that the undiscounted rates for these timekeepers are comparable to or less than 17 rates for professionals at similar levels doing legal work of this kind.

18 Shartsis Friese also requests that the Court approve $13,665.42 in costs. The 19 majority of these costs are travel-related (Shartsis Friese is not billing for travel 20 time to Southern California on this matter), primarily for travel to meetings with 21 counsel for the Trustees and/or with the Receiver and his staff. Shartsis Friese 22 charges costs at actual or estimated cost, including charges of $.08 per page for in-23 house copying.

24 III. CONCLUSION

25 During the eight months of the Third Interim Period, Shartsis Friese has 26 worked diligently to assist the Receiver in fulfilling his responsibilities in a cost 27 efficient manner. Therefore, pursuant to this Court's power to approve the 28 requested interim fees and costs, Shartsis Friese respectfully requests that the Court
